

Orion Health Opens New Service and Support Office in UK

Thursday, 19 June 2008

Orion Health, a leading provider of clinical workflow and integration technology for the healthcare sector, announced today the opening of its office in Reading, which provides a new home for the company's services, technical support and marketing teams for the United Kingdom, Ireland and Northern Europe.

The office opening follows continued strong performance for Orion Health in its Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) region, and recognises the continuing importance of UK NHS organisations in the future of Orion Health's global operations.

The Reading office will be the base for Orion Health's UK professional services team, which is currently engaged in projects with NHS organisations across England and Scotland. In addition, Orion Health's UK on-call technical support team will be operating from the new premises.

"Reading offers an optimal location for our Regional headquarters," said Mark Capill, Regional Director, EMEA for Orion Health. "For our operations in the UK in particular, we believe the new facilities allow us to offer improved service and responsiveness to our growing community of NHS customers."

"For customers and partners across Europe, the Reading office provides additional support capacity to complement our existing project and support office in Palma de Mallorca," Capill continued.

As part of the move, Orion Health's UK office number has been updated. The new telephone number is +44 (0)870 486 8406.
