

Orion Health, of Santa Monica, Calif. , has announced that the SouthEast Alaska Regional Health Consortium, based in Juneau, has selected the company's Rhapsody Integration Engine to help its different electronic health record, radiology, pharmacy, laboratory and business programs communicate with one another.