

Medical records are being scanned and digitized. It will provide at no charge digital backup copies of archived medical records to any patient or organization losing medical records during one of the recent hurricanes.

Stratus Technologies and Orion Health are teaming up to offer continuous availability of patient health portal data running on Stratus servers.

Emdeon acquires GE Healthcare Technology's patient statement business.